Accounting Practice with fees of circa $130,000

An opportunity to acquire an accounting practice client base with a mixture of clients from a range of different industries. The Practice has been established for over 3 years and operates from an office close to the Perth CBD. The Vendor feels the practice could potentially be relocated within a reasonable distance of its current location if this suits the Purchaser. The Practice has a range of clients including an ASX listed company.

The Vendor advises approximately $70,000 of the fees cover compliance engagements, which are the preparation of taxation returns, BAS's, financial statements, ASIC corporate registry maintenance, payroll and bookkeeping. In relation to the ASX listed company, the Vendor advises that he undertakes cashflows, payroll and the preparation of annual reports for the which totals approximately $60,000.

The Vendor would prefer to negotiate the sale of all clients in one parcel, however would consider splitting the ASX listed company client and the other clients.

It would be ideal for an existing accounting practice wishing to expand or perhaps a very experienced accountant wishing to commence practice at a reasonable scale.

The Vendor would like the settlement to occur sometime during August 2019 as he wishes to commence a new role.
